Rocks news

By CASSIE BALDWIN

Rocks. Nov. 19: Very cold weather hit here last week. It was very frosty.

The Pamplin Cannery will close on Nov. 28.

Get-well wishes go out to Hilda Jefferson, who is in the hospital and has had surgery.

A very sad gloom was cast over Appomattox County and the Hollywood area when news came that Mr. Harry Jenkins had passed away at Lynchburg General Hospital on Sunday, Nov. 18. He was a fine Chirstian man and was loved by all who ever knew him. Sympathy goes out to the family and loved ones. He will be greatly missed.

Many college students came home for Thanksgiving to be with their parents.

Congratulations to Mrs. Margaret Marshall, who won the birthday cake from Food World on Tuesday Nov. 20.

Glad Mr. Herman Watson is at home doing very well.

A very large crowd came out on Sunday night Nov. 18 to hear the Liberty Amazing Grace Choir Senior Adults. This was presented to their mother church, Rocks. This was directed by Joyce and Franklin Vaughan. It was good to have them with us.

A nice crowd came out on Wednesday, Nov. 21 for the Thanksgiving service at 6:30 and the supper that followed.

Sympathy goes out to Mary Ranson who lost a loved one last week.

Get-well wishes go out to Teresa Elder, who has been sick. May she have a quick recovery.

A speedy recovery is wished Mrs. Jerry East, who had another toe accident. May she soon be out and around.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Mason left Thanksgiving Day to visit his father in Delaware. He continues sick.

Sympathy goes out to the Thomas family's in the death of thier loved one, Mr. Frank Thomas who fell out of an apple tree several weeks ago. He has a brother, Jack Thomas of Evergreen.

Hunting season is on hand. Be very careful.

The fire trucks were called out to a chimney fire in Pamplin last Monday morning.

The Central Virginia Commission on Aging Program was held at Elon Church on Wednesday, Nov. 21 with 20 present. A nice Thanksgiving dinner was served. Many meals were delivered. We continue to support this. One new member came out.

Mr. and Mrs. Willie Smith has their children with them during Thanksgiving.

Christmas benefit bazaar set for Dec. 8

The Southside Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals will hold its fourth annual Christmas Bazaar on Saturday, Dec. 8, 1984 from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. at their new building next door to the Animal Shelter on Route 360 in Meherrin, Virginia.

The Christmas Bazaar is one of the Society's major fundraisers for the year. Many beautiful items will be offered for sale including: handmade ornaments, Christmas decorations, wreaths, ceramics, pillows, homemade jams and jellies, pickles, delicious baked goods and homemade candies.

Coffee and drinks will be available from the refreshments booth.

Santa Claus will be present from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m., so bring the children.

An extra special attraction this year will be the presence of Meg Hibbert from Madison Heights, Virginia. Ms. Hibbert is an animal artist who creates animal paintings and pet portraits from your favorite photograph. Why not bring a picture of your favorite pet and have a portrait done? Wouldn't a pet portrait make an unusual and treasured gift for someone you know?

Austin expresses appreciation

Editor:

Now that I've moved to Page County, for a good job opportunity, I feel that I owe the fine people I met in Appomattox County, the past two years, a sincere note of appreciation!

I am deeply grateful for the considereration and kindness displayed by Mrs. Margaret Harris, Mr. Paul Sarver, Mr. Calvin Robinson, Mayor Ronnie Spiggle, and many other good citizens. My roots have always been in beautiful Appomattox County, and that legacy continues to be carried forward by Mr. Richard F. Smith, my stepgrandfather, and Mrs. Edna S. Smith, the grandmother who has meant more than mere words can ever express.

Although I have relocated my worldly goods, there will always remain, in Appomattox County, a piece of my heart and soul.

Thank you! May God deeply and richly bless each and every person reading these words!

Sincerely,
Richard Austin

Wants to locate his sister

To the readers of The Times-Virginian:

I am trying to locate my sister Annie Ruth Moser - (Mrs. Warren Moser).

It has been 15 years since I last heard from her. At that time she was living in the Appomattox area.

Her husband is a golf club manager and they both worked at golf clubs, but I do not know which clubs.

If anyone knows her, please have her get in touch with me, or if anyone knows where I can contact her, please write me at the address below.

I greatly appreciate any help anyone can give me.

Thank you.

Sincerely,
Fred W. Burnette
